first creek "botanica" brut	hunter valley	nsw	nv	$45
dal zotto "pucino" prosecco	king valley	vic	nv	$55 patriarch otto dal zotto was born in valdobbiadene in the veneto region, home of italy's favourite sparkling, prosecco. it's logical then that dal zotto would help pioneer the prosecco grape in australia. the pucino, an ancient roman word meaning prosecco, is crisp and zesty with a hint of apple; fruit driven with a dry finish. in one word, delicious.

vin gris is 100% pinot noir juice with no skin contact and fermented in stainless steel tanks. it is rich and textural, with a complexion that is very different to expectation. a very pale salmon colour with a nose of wild strawberries and flowers, it is dry rather than austere and completely clean on a long and pure finish.

this is a great example from one of australia's best cabernet sauvignon regions. its flavour spectrum is superb. fresh berries, a hint of chocolate and nice tannins to finish. it is medium bodied and as such, does well in the nq heat.

frogmore creek iced riesling	coal river	tas	2017	$12	$60

tasmania is one of only a very few wine-producing regions in australia that enjoys a genuine cool climate, allowing grapes to ripen relatively slowly over a longer period. this slower ripening results in wines of intense flavour and elegance. the iced riesling shows strong mandarin aromas with subtle sweet honey tones and bruised apple flavours. a lovely lighter style dessert wine, yet very crisp, lengthy and complex. great partner with salsa's house-made cheeses!
